Welcome to HAYNES MOTOR MUSEUM

Offering a truly unique and memorable venue for conferences, events, and private functions.

An Ideal Location

Conveniently located close to the A303 in South Somerset, the Museum is easily reached from central locations and is well connected by public transport.

By Road

Just two minutes off the A303 in South Somerset with direct routes from Bristol, Bath, Yeovil, Dorchester, and Taunton. A large, free car parking facility is available on site.

By Rail

The mainline station at Castle Cary is five miles from the Museum, with its high-speed link between Paddington and Penzance and a daily route between Bristol, Weymouth and Yeovil.

A Unique Venue

Haynes Motor Museum is the only venue in the South West that includes exceptional conference and hospitality facilities with access to the UK's largest collection of cars and bikes from around the world.

Each conference or event makes a valuable contribution towards the preservation of the Museum's wonderful collection of historic vehicles, automobilia and archives.

Each Event Makes a Valuable Contribution to Motoring Heritage

The Museum is an independent, UK registered charity and all profits are donated directly back to the charity.

The evening went very well and we were very impressed by the Museum. We were most impressed by your courteous and caring event staff.

Thank you to you and your team for the superb job you did. The event was a massive success for us, so much so that we have already decided to re-book for next year. I have had nothing but positive comments from people, everyone enjoyed the event and the feeling is we have certainly stepped up a level with this new venue.

Honeywell Aerospace

Terrace & Lawn

With panoramic views of the Camelot Hill and the striking Museum façade as a backdrop, the terrace and lawn is the perfect outdoor space for hosting private drinks receptions, BBQ's, product launches and team building events.

Adjacent to both Napier, Café 750 and the Museum's reception foyer, the whole area can be hired for larger events, offering an impressive setting for evening events.
